

A seminar on “Legal Framework of Fundamental duties & Rights in India”

19th February, 2020

A seminar on “Legal Framework of Fundamental duties & Rights in India” was organized jointly with NSS Unit of college on 19th February, 2020. The seminar was organized under the supervision of Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, Principal of SLC; Dr. Kavita Arora, Convener, CSD; Dr. Jasvir Singh, Programme Officer, NSS Unit of SLC. The resource person for the session was Advocate Ravi Chauhan, DLSA, Shahdara. Around 100 students and faculty members of SLC attended the seminar.

Advocate Ravi Chauhan started the session with some basic questions on fundamental rights and duties. He explained in detail the legal framework of our rights & duties, why these are important for an individual, and their importance in our constitution. He imparted knowledge regarding various legal aspects of fundamental duties & rights, how to defend and seek justice through legal framework, if anyone feels justice is denied to him/her under fundamental duties & rights. The seminar was important for everyone, especially for the youth as they got to know the proper meaning and framework of their fundamental duties & rights. Being a citizen of India it is important for every individual to know about the basic and legal aspect of their duties & rights. It was quite an enriching & enlightening experience for the students. All the doubts and queries of the students and faculty members were cleared by the resource person. Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, principal and Dr. Kavita Arora made some informative deliberations in the seminar.
