How to Excel in Group Discussion and Personal Interviews

Jan 13, 2017

A seminar was organized on “how to excel in group discussion and personal interviews on 13th January 2017. It was held on the occasion of internship offered by M Sadashiv and Associates. The keynote speaker of the session was Mr.Kaushik Laskar from Triumphant Institute of Management Education (T.I.M.E) having expertise in preparing students who get calls from different IIMS for GD/PI. He impressed upon the statement that ‘First impression is the best impression’. The way you communicate professionally with your peers, heads and most importantly the customers is directly or indirectly an add-on to the quality of services that your company offers to the masses. During discussion the speaker explained some tips for effective group discussion among students like; (i) Let your appearance talk (ii) Know the topic (iii) Be the first to get off the blocks (iv) Be a good listener (v) Be clear on your points.

Shri laskar also emphasized on some personal interview skills saying that, ‘personal interview gives you an opportunity to showcase your skills in the right manner. With a right gesture, body language and proper posture, you can successfully create your impact on the interviewers. If you are looking for simple tips for personal interview then you first need to make up your mind that an interview is a path for creating a lasting impression. Hence, give your best shot. Your conversation with the interviewer must be meaningful and to the point. It does not make sense to be quiet or be too talkative. You need to maintain the correct balance. This will eventually help you crack the interview and increase your chances to get selected. You must be ready to answer the questions that revolve around the career, ambition and life. The event was attended by 44 students.
