4. Sponsor/Collaborator : IQAC, SLC
5. Report/Brief Description : The Centre for Industry Interaction organized an impromptu speaking competition on 20th April 2023. The event was a great success involving about twenty students participating in the speaking competition. The participants were supposed to speak on the following topics:

- i. Artificial Intelligence
- ii. Climate change
- iii. Reservation in India
- iv. Fake News
- v. Impact of technology on Jobs
- vi. Unemployment
- vii. Women Empowerment
- viii. Things I learned in Lockdown
- ix. Book v/s Movies — Better Source of Learning

Rules and Declaration of Results:

The time limit given to them was two minutes plus thirty seconds as preparation time. The Centre invited three judges for evaluation of the speeches by the participants. The results were declared within half an hour of the competition. The results once announced was a moment of great honor for all the participants. The winners were awarded the appreciation certificates and the trophies for their respective positions. While all the other participants got certificates for their active participation in the event. This was a great initiative by the Centre as they were able to provide a platform for students to express themselves freely and to develop their public speaking skills.
