

Annual Fest of Economica in 2018

The annual Eco fest, which is also termed as Economica, was held during 14-15 March, 2018. The event had many planning sessions prior to holding of the event attended by teachers of the department as well as the student members of the Economics Association. By the way, the Economics Association of the college is popularly called Ecomaniacs. As the very name suggests, members of Ecomaniacs are not only so much into studying economics but also trying to popularise the subject as well the event that is held on an annual basis. The team responsible for organising Economica-2018 was led by Sadhika Madan (President of Ecomaniacs) and Shobhit Goel (Vice-president of Ecomaniacs). Students from other colleges of delhi university also participated in the Economica fest with great enthusiasm. Events were categorized into formal and informal events. 78 students registered for the event.

A large number of activities were held under the event. The first day of the event started with lightening of the lamp by the principal Dr. Rabi Narayan Kar in the presence of all faculty members and students' members of economic society and other students of college. Teacher in-charge welcomed the principal and guest with the flowers and memento. The opening notes for the Annual Fest was delivered by the principal, who congratulated the department for organizing the annual fest and shared his wisdom of words and gave his best wishes for the successful conduct of the fest and also motivated the students to participate in large number. Then our chief guest Mr. V.K.Puri sir also shared his thoughts with the audience.

Day one events included Roadies (The tagline was 'Do you have the guts to go beyond the pain?'. It called upon participants to go beyond the unseen, inexperienced situations), Dosti ya Dhokebazi (The tagline was "Everything is Fair in Love And War". It was a suspense event that gave you a call for your trade between your friends and business), Battle of Clicks (photography competition), Mister Minister (An interesting situation-based event related with management of finance), and Youth Parliamentary Debate. Judges for the Youth Parliamentary Debate were Mr. V.K.Puri Sir and Vivekanand Nartam from department of Political Science, SLC.

Day two events started with scintillating dance performances by the Aarodhya Dance Society of our college. Then there was a line-up of events like Hi Q! (A quiz competition), IPL Auction (The tagline for the event was “Bid it to Win it”. It called upon the participants to auction their players to make a perfect team that could not be undermined by other teams), and Cinematic Bingo (An event for Bollywood lovers and to be brief, it was a tambola based on Bollywood).

Various stalls of eatery and fun games were also set up in the college premises to keep the crowd engaged. All these events marked an enthusiastic participation from the students and ensured an enriching environment for them to promote learning as well as to gain practical knowledge. 70 students attended the event.
