ANNUAL REPORT: HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR 2018-2019

was established back in the year 2010 under the supervision of a supremely talented students of Shyam Lal College. The present team sincerely regards the efforts of the previous associates of the society for their significant contribution in the growth of the society.

For the year 2018-19, the society is headed by Devansh Kaushik (President) & Gopal Krishan Sharma (Vice-President) who lead the society with utmost professionalism and determination. Devashish Gupta (Co-ordinator) controls and supports all the operations to ensure smooth and successful running of the activities in the society. The Instagram page "jharokha_dramatics" turns out to be an active engagement platform that not only shares new updates but also puts the society steps ahead on exploring new opportunities.

We are extremely glad to report that our society has the highest rate of participation in 2018-19 compared to the past years. The society participated in Mood Indigo Theatre competition (IIT Bombay) in December, exhibiting the efforts of all talented individuals in the society. The play 'ALL DEBTS PAID' was directed under the guidance of Sourabh Kashyap (Director) which gathered great appreciation from the audience. It is indeed one of the major milestones achieved with due regards to the consistent efforts of the members of the society. The two plays 'Tootte Parivesh' & 'Waiting in Coffee House' exhibit collaborative efforts of the actors and director of the team.

For the next term, the society is looking forward to work on a lot more creative scripts and ready to tick off all the agendas in the future. The society awaits for new and challenging projects for the upcoming year 2019-20.
