NOTICE

The University of Delhi vide its Press Release dated 12/03/2020 has initiated several steps to prevent pandemic conditions arising out of COVID 19 (enclosed herewith) which is self-explanatory.

Accordingly, the College administration has decided for the following measures to prevent the outbreak of the same:-

1. All classes shall remain suspended till 31/03/2020.
2. Faculties are requested to upload relevant video lectures & study material and assignments on the College website to maintain teaching learning process. College Computer Lab is well equipped to record your lectures and sample video lectures are already available in the website. However, it is the responsibility of faculties to ensure that the same is uploaded and the Teaching Learning process is not discontinued.
3. All Functions, Events, Seminars, Workshops, Educational Trips and any sort of group activities stand postponed till further notice.
4. In addition the aforementioned steps, all the faculties of our College feel free to approach College administration with any innovative ideas for continuing the teaching learning process in this period.
5. Staff members are advised not to undertake Non-essential travel and staff coming from abroad need to follow Ministry of Health and Family Welfare directions.

I am sure of your cooperation in preventing the spreading of COVID19.
