

Rajeev Saxena, Partner

Member firm of Mazars

Rajeev Saxena is a Chartered Accountant and a Partner with a member firm of Mazars. In his 19 years of experience, Rajeev has handled and advised on numerous engagements on matters relating to Assurance as per Indian GAAP, IFRS and USGAAP and project management/implementation financed under USAID. Rajeev comes with International experience in development projects audits conducted for European commission, experience of audits of World Bank aided projects and also has exposure of due diligence and business valuation. He has also conducted study on archaic laws for National Horticulture Board, Ministry of Agriculture. He has completed a course on the Indian Foreign Exchange Management Act, and has received training on 'long-term contracts risk and accounting' in Singapore, and on 'UNGP on Human Rights and Business' in Berlin.