

ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

24th Nov 2021

CENTRE FOR HOLISTIC DEVELOPMENT (CHD), Shyam Lal College, DU in collaboration with IQAC organized an ESSAY WRITING competition where students were given a free and fair opportunity to demonstrate their creative and critical thinking abilities.

Essay Writing is an art, which brings out your writing skills. It is an art, through which you pen down your knowledge and perception about the given topic.

We encourage participants to develop not only the skills of penning down their thoughts but also engage in creativity, research, and organization skills. We believe in the enrichment of society by empowering young individuals with constructive thinking for creating a positive ambiance for overall societal growth.

This competition gave everyone the power to express themselves thoroughly and share their clear and intellectual thoughts with society.

The main objective of this competition was to foster the engagement of students on the matter of INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHT. Hence, the topics of the competition were:

- *Intellectual Property Right in India: Issues and challenges. OR
- *Importance of Intellectual Property Rights for innovation in India.

This competition which was organized on Wednesday, 24th November 2021. A link was shared with all the participants where they could share their essays. In order to cater to maximum participation, the students were allowed to submit essays in either Hindi or English. The competition was conducted free of cost, fair by all means, and open to everyone. All the participants were given E-certificates for their active participation.

It was indeed a difficult task to choose the best entry. Each and every participant's hard work was reflected through their writing pieces. The students were judged on various grounds which includes originality, good diction, ideas, etc.
