Seminar on Fundamental Duties and Rights

19th February 2020

The Fundamental Rights and Fundamental Duties are sections of the Constitution of India that define the fundamental obligations of the states to its citizens and the duties of citizens towards the nation. These provisions are considered important elements of the constitution, which was developed between 1947 and 1949 by the Constituent Assembly of India. Fundamental rights and duties are the basic rights of an Indian Citizen in the Indian Constitution.

On 19th February 2020, The National Service Scheme (NSS) of Shyam Lal College (University of Delhi) in collaboration with Maa Ratni organized a seminar on Fundamental Duties and Rights. 47 students participated in this event. The Seminar was started by the Principal Sir as he shared the importance of this seminar. Students were enriched with the topic by our eminent resource person. He enlightened the students about their duties as citizens of India and also he told them about their fundamental rights. The session was interesting and interactive. At the end of the seminar the speaker satisfied the queries raised by the students in a very simple and interesting manner
