Report on “Uncovering National Memory:
Jallianwala Bagh Massacre and Baisakhi”

13th April, 2024

The NSS Unit of SLC in collaboration with the Department of Political Science, IQAC Gandhi Study Circle & Republica organized an online webinar on “Uncovering National Memory: Jallianwala Massacre and Baiskahi”.

The event’s main speaker was Prof. Sachhidanand Mishra (Member Secretary, ICPR and Professor, BHU). This event was held under the surveillance and guidance of college principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar.

This event was attended by faculty members from the political science department and students and volunteers from NSS.

On 13th April 1919 the biggest massacre in the history of India the Jallianwala Bagh Massacre happened. On this fateful day, 379 people protesting against British rule were ruthlessly killed in the Jallianwala Bagh. To provide their respect and homage to the people who were killed this webinar was organized.
