On January 24, 2024, the National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Women Development Cell (WDC) of Shyam Lal College jointly organised an Essay Writing Competition. The event took place in Room No. 28 at 12:30 PM and witnessed enthusiastic participation of 25 students across various disciplines. The competition aimed to encourage critical thinking and articulate expression among students on themes related to social issues and women's development.

The competition was inaugurated by the esteemed Principal, Prof. Rabi Narayan. In his welcome address, he emphasised the importance of such events in fostering a culture of intellectual engagement and social awareness among students.

The program was coordinated by Dr. Swati Yadav, the Programme Officer of the NSS, and Miss Manila Kohli, the Convenor of the Women Development Cell. Both Dr. Yadav and Miss Kohli played pivotal roles in ensuring the smooth execution of the competition. Dr. Swati Yadav addressed the participants, highlighting the significance of essay writing as a tool for self-expression and advocacy.

Participants were given a set amount of time to write their essays on pre-determined topics. The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where cash prizes were awarded to the winners. The Principal, Prof. Rabi Narayan, presented the prizes and certificates to the following winners. Certificates of participation were also distributed to all participants, recognizing their effort and encouraging them to continue engaging in such intellectual pursuits.

Winners of the competition:

1. First Position:- Shubham Prakash
2. Second Position:- Meenal
3. Third Position:- Payal and Priya
