On September 10th, 2024, the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) inaugurated the "100 Days Key Action Plan of 14C" at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi, a significant event aimed at bolstering India's cybercrime prevention capabilities. The program, inaugurated by Hon'ble Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Mr. Amit Shah, was focused on the establishment of the Indian Cyber Crime Coordination Centre (14C) to enhance the country's collective ability to combat cybercrime.

As part of the 100 Days Key Action Plan, several key initiatives were launched, including:

- Samanvaya (Joint Management Information System)
- Cyber Commandos
- Cyber Fraud Mitigation Center (CFMC)

The event was graced by Mr. Amit Shah, who delivered a compelling keynote address, emphasizing the significance of these initiatives in strengthening the nation's cybersecurity infrastructure. The Union Home Minister also participated in the awards ceremony, which honored various contributors to these initiatives.

A group of twenty National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers from Delhi was selected to assist in the smooth execution of the event. Among them were four dedicated volunteers from the NSS Unit of Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi: Praneeta Raj Singh, Rishabh Sharma, Jatin Bansal, and Chetna Bhardwaj.

Under the guidance of Akash Sir from the Regional Directorate Office of NSS, the volunteers diligently fulfilled their roles, ensuring the event's success. Their participation in this prestigious event further highlighted the spirit of service and dedication embodied by NSS volunteers.
