

National Webinar on Creating Awareness about National Education Policy

IQAC organized a National Webinar organized on 22nd September, 2020 on the topic “Creating Awareness about National Education Policy” with Prof. (Dr.) Rajiv Kumar Gupta, Regional Higher Education Officer, UP as the resource person. More than 120 participants attended the webinar. The webinar was introduced by IQAC convenor Dr. Kusha Tiwari who highlighted different aspects of NEP that are to be implemented in the coming academic session across institutions in India. Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, Principal SLC welcomed the esteemed speaker of the day and praised the efforts of the present government in bringing out an education policy that will place India as a leader in the World academic scenario. After this, Prof. Gupta interacted with the audience and talked about how NEP 2020 is the first policy in the history of our country that lays emphasis on aspects untouched by previous policies like concept of lifelong learning, skill based courses, making India Vishwaguru etc. Prof Gupta further emphasized on how NEP addresses the concerns and challenges of education in a diverse country like India. The making of NEP has involved the concerns of rural, semi-urban and urban stakeholders and it has been prepared keeping in mind more than two lakh suggestions given by academicians, students among others. Prof. Gupta added that NEP 2020 will fulfill the vision of Hon’ble PM Sh. Narendra Modi to create a ‘self-reliant India’. He further talked about how NEP 2020 has provisions for progress of schools and higher education institutions with multiple entry and exit schemes in colleges and universities. He ended his talk by saying that NEP 2020 is the culmination of positive thinking and sustained efforts to make India a global knowledge center. The deliberations were highly appreciated by the participants who eagerly offered their comments and asked questions to clarify their doubts about NEP. Several participants expressed how this webinar has made them aware of the nuances of NEP which is very comprehensive and far-sighted in playing a great role in the progress of the nation in future. The webinar ended with vote of thanks and a fruitful discussion with the participants.
