

REPORT ON CONSTITUTION DAY

AMBEDKAR STUDY CIRCLE

NOVEMBER 26, 2022

SHYAM LAL COLLEGE

On the occasion of Constitution Day, a seminar was held in Seminar Hall by the initiative of Dr Rajeshvari (Convenor) of Ambedkar Study Circle, Shyam Lal College. It was marked by the gracious presence of Principal Dr Rabi Narayan Kar. Dr Shyam Kumar was invited as the Guest of Honour. The programme was attended by committee members along with the students. The programme began with offering flowers to Dr Ambedkar followed by a pledge taking ceremony where everyone was asked to recite the pledge. The inaugural speech was given by Dr Rajeshvari where she highlighted the historical significance of the constitution and the contribution of Dr BR Ambedkar. The master of ceremony was Dr Anuj Kushwaha who introduced the panel members and managed the ceremonial aspects of the program. Our Principal Dr Rabi Narayan Kar, congratulated the convenor and the committee members for organizing an event based on the constitutional rights and duties. In the talk by Dr Shyam Kumar, he highlighted the relevance of Dr Baba Saheb Ambedkar's vision in the 21st century. He specified the reason why India's diversity should be kept intact in terms of maintaining the peace, harmony, law and order in the social fabric of the nation. In his speech he encouraged the students to read the constitution and be aware of the rights and rules of the country. Mr Manoj from the administrative department of the college also presented his views and encouraged the students to fly high with the wings of education and the principles of Baba Saheb.

The program was followed by the speech competition where students presented their views on the topic titled, “The increasing relevance of Ambedkar’s value in the literary domain ”.

The programme ended with the prize distribution ceremony and a vote of thanks. The program was made successful also with the efforts of the dedicated volunteers who handled the details of the program really well.
