

REPORT ON CERTIFICATE COURSE IN FRENCH

The academic session 2023-24 marked the commencement of the Certificate Course in French at Shyam Lal College, aiming to equip students with the essential skills to thrive in a globalized world. The importance of learning foreign languages is increasingly recognized as the world becomes more interconnected, and bilingualism is now considered one of the most valuable real-world skills. The foreign language courses offered by the Centre are conducted under the aegis of the Department of Germanic and Romance Studies, University of Delhi. The course received an overwhelming response, with 55 students enrolling in this course. This large number of enrollment reflects the growing recognition of the importance of bilingualism in today's interconnected society. The classes for the Certificate Course in French commenced on 20th October 2023. The classes were held in offline mode in Shyam Lal College campus.

The Certificate Course in French has been a significant addition to the skill development initiatives at Shyam Lal College, providing students with essential language proficiency. The course not only enhances their ability to communicate in French but also prepares them to compete effectively in a globalized job market. The success of the course underscores the importance of learning foreign languages in today's interconnected world.
