

SHYAMLAL COLLEGE

HUNT IT OUT EVENT

YUVASPANDANA'24 REPORT

ORGANISED BY ENTREPRENEURSHIP CELL & CENTRE FOR SKILL DEVELOPMENT

ON 14TH AND 15TH March 2024

Introduction:

Yuvaspandana'24, an annual extravaganza jointly organized by the Entrepreneurship Cell (E-Cell) and Center for Skill Development Society (CSD), marked a celebration of creativity, entrepreneurship, and strategic thinking. Among the array of events, "Hunt it Out," a hybrid treasure hunt orchestrated by the E-Cell, stood out as a testament to collaborative planning and execution.

Event Overview: The spirited morning of March 15th saw the commencement of "Hunt it Out," a captivating treasure hunt designed to challenge the intellect and teamwork of participants. Spearheaded by the dynamic quartet of Utkarsh, Sweety, Nimisha, and Rishabh, and ably supported by 3-4 dedicated volunteers, the event attracted 18 teams comprising a total of 80 enthusiastic participants. Noteworthy was the inclusion of inter-college participants from esteemed institutions like Hansraj College and Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar College, adding a dimension of healthy competition and camaraderie.

Competition Dynamics: The competition unfolded in two exhilarating rounds, each designed to push the boundaries of strategic thinking and resourcefulness. The initial round served as a litmus test, where only the top 6 teams emerged triumphant, earning the right to progress to the final showdown. The final round, characterized by its intensity and suspense, presented each qualifying team with four challenging hints, demanding swift deciphering and decisive action. The first team to successfully crack the clues would claim the coveted title of champion.

Triumphs and Achievements: In a display of unwavering determination and strategic prowess, the team Mehak Aggrwal , Pavni Pandey and Rounak from Hansraj College emerged as the deserving champions, showcasing their ability to navigate the maze of challenges with finesse. The first runner-up position was clinched by a formidable team Sachin Yadav, Abhishek , Meena, Atul, Vishant Choudhary from Shyam Lal College, whose resilience and teamwork propelled them to success. Remarkably, the second runner-up position was also secured by another team from Shyam Lal College, underscoring the institution's commitment to excellence in every endeavor.

Yuvaspandana'24, with its flagship event "Hunt it Out," served as a beacon of inspiration and innovation, fostering a culture of entrepreneurship and collaboration among youth. The event not only provided a platform for showcasing talent but also encouraged participants to push their limits and explore their potential. As the curtains drew to a close around 1:30 pm, the echoes of triumph and camaraderie lingered, leaving an indelible mark on all those who witnessed the spectacle. Moving forward, Yuvaspandana stands poised to continue igniting the spark of innovation and leadership, shaping the leaders and change-makers of tomorrow.

EVENT POSTER:

Photos taken during the competition:

