Venue: SLC Lawn
Collaborations: IQAC
Faculty Participants: 100

The Sarasvati IKS Centre, in collaboration with the Library, Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), SLC organized a Book Fair on 23rd October 2024. The event aimed to promote a culture of reading, facilitate academic discourse, and provide access to a diverse range of scholarly and literary resources.

The Book Fair was inaugurated by the Principal, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar who emphasized the significance of books in fostering intellectual growth and the role of such events in enhancing the academic ecosystem. The fair witnessed participation from several reputed publishers who showcased a variety of books covering subjects such as Indian Knowledge Systems, Literature, History, Philosophy, Science, Technology, Social Sciences, Arts, and Management.

Students and faculty members actively engaged with the exhibits, exploring books relevant to their academic and research interests. The event provided an excellent opportunity for participants to interact with publishers, learn about newly published works, and acquire valuable resources. The overwhelming response from attendees reflected the enthusiasm for literature and knowledge-sharing within the academic community.

The successful organization of the Book Fair reinforced the Sarasvati IKS Centre's commitment to fostering a vibrant learning environment. The event concluded with a note of appreciation from Prof. Kusha Tiwari, who acknowledged the collaborative efforts of Library, faculty members, and students in making the fair a meaningful experience.
