Centre: Sarasvati IKS Centre
Venue: Board Room, Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi
Collaborations: IQAC
Number of Participants: 50

The book Bharatiya Gyan Parampara: Discourses and Traditions was officially released on 14th August 2024 at Shyam Lal College (University of Delhi), in an event organized by the Sarasvati IKS Centre in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). This publication is the result of the AICTE-sponsored project Bharatiya Gyan Samvahan Karyakram 2022, led by the Sarasvati IKS Centre at SLC.

Prof. Balram Pani, Dean of Colleges, University of Delhi, graced the event as the Guest of Honor. He congratulated the Sarasvati IKS Centre team for successfully completing the project and expressed his delight at the publication of the book, which emphasizes the importance of Indian knowledge traditions. He highlighted that this work would inspire both teachers and students to delve deeper into India's ancient civilizational heritage and adapt these rich traditions to meet present-day needs.

Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, Principal of SLC, in his address, highlighted the college's leadership in implementing NEP 2020, with a special focus on bringing Indian knowledge traditions to the forefront for the benefit of society and the nation. He congratulated Prof. Kusha Tiwari, under whose leadership the project and the book were brought to fruition, and expressed hope that the Sarasvati IKS Centre, under her guidance, would continue its work in this vital area.

In her address, Prof. Kusha Tiwari thanked the dedicated team of teachers and students at the Sarasvati IKS Centre for their hard work in completing the project. She emphasized the Centre's commitment to engaging both faculty and students in the exploration and preservation of India's ancient knowledge and traditions. She noted that the Centre regularly organizes seminars and talks to deepen students' understanding of India's civilizational heritage and expose them to the various complexities of the subject.

The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Seema Guglani.
