Vimarsh (The Reading Club) of Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with the Sarasvati Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) Centre and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized the programme “Vande Mataram@150 - A Celebration of Patriotism, Heritage & Harmony” on 24 November 2025 at the Open Pathshala, Shyam Lal College. The event was conducted as part of the nationwide commemorative activities marking 150 years of the national song “Vande Mataram”, in accordance with the guidelines issued by the University Grants Commission.

The programme commenced with the formal welcome and introduction by Dr. Seema Guglani, Convener, Vimarsh (The Reading Club). In her address, she highlighted the historical, cultural, and emotional significance of “Vande Mataram” and contextualized the celebration by emphasizing its role in India’s freedom struggle and its continuing relevance in fostering national unity and harmony.

This was followed by a soul-stirring rendition of “Vande Mataram” by Mr. Vivekanand Nartam, which resonated deeply with the audience and infused the atmosphere with a strong sense of patriotism and collective pride.

The Principal, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, addressed the gathering and emphasized the enduring relevance of “Vande Mataram” as a symbol of India’s cultural heritage, unity in diversity, and national consciousness. He appreciated the efforts of the organizing team and encouraged students to actively engage with initiatives that promote constitutional values, cultural awareness, and social harmony.

Prof. Kusha Tiwari, Director, Sarasvati IKS Centre & IQAC, also addressed the audience, focusing on the civilizational ethos and intellectual legacy embodied in “Vande Mataram.” She highlighted how the song connects India’s past with its present and future, and emphasized the importance of integrating Indian Knowledge Systems with contemporary academic discourse.

The programme featured several enriching activities, including the Swadeshi Sankalp Shapath, a poster exhibition on the theme of “Vande Mataram,” a musical tribute by the Insignia Band, and an Essay Writing Competition, all of which witnessed enthusiastic participation from students.
