Programme organized by the Department of History (2020-2021)

ACADEMIC YEAR (2020-2021)

Alumni Meet on Saturday, 13th March, 2021

In order to foster the College-Alumni bond and relive the fond memories DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY in collaboration with UDGAM: B.A. PROGRAMME SOCIETY jointly organized an online Alumni Meet on Saturday, 13th March, 2021 from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. This was the first Orientation Programme to be organized at the Departmental level and purpose of the Orientation Programme was to engage the almunis as a stakeholder in the running of the institution. There were 100 students and teachers who attended the alumni meet. The programme was jointly anchored by the students volunteers of B.A. (Prog) and the Department of History. Dr. Gayatri Chaturvedi, convenor of B.A. (Prog) and from department of History welcomed all the teachers, ex-students and the student volunteers and invited Teacher-In-Charge, Department of History, Dr. Rohan Mandal to address the alumni students. The students volunteers thereafter, invited teachers from History Department and teachers who had taught B.A. (Prog) one by one to welcome the alumnis of the college. Thereafter, the almunis students of the Department of History were alternately called out by the anchoring student volunteers to introduce themselves and share their experiences of the college life. The programme provided teachers to meet with the ex-students and walked done the memory lane with them and was a wonderful success. The programme provided an opportunity to the Department of History to strengthen its bond with the almunis, track their career progression for mutual benefit and synergy. At the end of the Orientation Programme senior most faculty from the Department of Political Science was invited to deliver a vote of thanks to all.
