COMMBLAZE- The Commerce Association of SLC (University of Delhi) hosted its annual event "COMMBUZZ'24" which included "Spotlight" – The Open Mic.

Spotlight encountered an unmatched turnout of extraordinary minds who appreciably confronted themselves forward to showcase their talents. The event attracted participants from diverse backgrounds, all associated with high talented qualifications in their respective fields. The event was anchored and hosted by the team member of Commlaze, Mansi Nandwani, who addressed the audience well and helped the participants enthusiastically.

The event kicked off with a rigorous performances presented by participants that involved dance, singing, stand-up comedy, poem recitation and others. There was an exciting chaos among audience as well as participants. A diverse array of talent took the stage throughout the afternoon, captivating the engaged audience. Soulful musicians performed originals and covers on guitar, keyboard and vocals. Poets shared creative works that left the audience in awe. Dancers entertained with contemporary, hip-hop and traditional styles. The supportive crowd cheered each performer. This open stage event provided a platform for creative expression and community connection. The performances were aspiring and inspiring and the icing on the cake was the concluding performance by Vikas Sharma , Delhi university PGDAV student who made audience go crazy .

After intense deliberation, the winners of Spotlight were finally revealed:

First Place: Vikas Sharma
