

Title of the Programme: Vasantotsav:

Date: 28th-29th January 2020

No of Registered: 100 approximately

Shyam Lal college, 28-29 Jan: A colorful and memorable function of Vasantotsav was organised by Udgam Society of B.A. (prog.) at SLC, University of Delhi on 28 - 29 January 2020. This function was two day long and held in befitting manner under the guidance of Dr. Gayatri Chaturvedi. Various events as well as a workshop were included in this function. The Principal, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, welcomed the chief guest Acharya Sh. Gopal Krishan, who inaugurated the event. Acharya Sh. Gopal Krishan in his speech, emphasized on the importance of yoga in our daily lives. After the workshop, many events were organised with the objective of providing platform to the students to showcase their talent with a competitive spirit. Under these events, an exciting inter-house quiz competition " QUIZMANIA" was held. The event of "Quizmania" was led and executed successfully under the guidance of Dr. Bharat Garg.

On the second day of the event, various activities were held at porch area of the college. The Society commenced function with the Rangoli making competition the objective of which was to provide a platform where students could showcase their creative skills. Around 15 teams participated in this competition. Maximum three participants were allowed in one team. All the participants made beautiful designs. Its winners were Nirjara & Anshika Kakkar from B.Sc. Chemistry (Hons), 2nd year (1st position) and Monika Aggarwal from B.A. History (Hons). (2nd position). The second event was Poster making. The theme of the poster making competition was environment, health & hygiene. The total time allotted for the activity was 1 hour. Students participated in large numbers. Riya from B.A. (prog) 1st year got first position whereas Parul Rajawat from B.A. (prog) 1st year got second prize in this competition. The decision regarding the winners was made on the basis of following criteria: Relevance to the theme, neatness and overall presentation. An event on calligraphy was conduct in which around 25 students participated. Riya Lalit from B.A. (prog) 1 st year stood first whereas Anshika Kakkar from B.Sc. Chemistry (Hons). 3rd year got second in the calligraphy. After the Calligraphy, event of poetry writing was also organised. There were around 20 participants in this event. Manish Kumar from B.A. (prog) 3rd year got 1st rank and Priya Agrawal from B.A. English (Hons). 2nd year got 2nd position in this activity. In the sequence of events, competition of border making was conducted to provide a platform to showcase their creative skills and ideas. The students participated in large numbers. Participation with team or individual was permitted. Though it was difficult to select the top two rank holders but judges selected Nishi from B.A. (prog) 3rd year with first position whereas Rashi Rohilla was selected with second position in this event. Before starting final event of best dressed competition, principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar was called for speech and lightening of the lamp. After lightening the lamp, principal delivered a short speech in which he expressed his appreciation towards the convenor & the team for organizing such function and events in the college premise. After this last event of best dressed was held in which participants had to walk on the ramp in ethnic attires. Two boys and twenty-two girls participated in this contest. After a long discussion, judges selected Shahna from B.A. (Prog) 3rd year and Saniya from B.A. (prog) 1st year for first position and Second position respectively in the girls. In the boys Shirshendhu from B.A. (prog) 1st year and Shubham Kumar from B.A. prog. 3rd year were selected for first and second position respectively. (Photographs attached)

Vasantotsav 29 Jan,2020
BA Prog. Society Udgam
Convener: Dr. Gayatri Chaturvedi

