The event turned out to be a huge success by attracting around eighty-five students from across disciplines showing their active participation in the talk.

With the involvement of all the organizers, the event commenced on a welcoming note for our Chief Guest, Prof. Nandini Sahu, by the respected Principal, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar sir assisted by the teacher-in-charge of the English Department, Ms Shivali Kharbanda ma'am.

The talk aimed at giving an introduction to and defining Folklore along with demarcating ‘Folk’ from ‘Fake’. It gave a brief insight into the scientific association of folktales and folk literature as a way of life. Prof. Nandini went on to talk about some verses from her published works, elaborating on drawing lines between folk, classical, and modern literature. She also discussed slices of life from Ramayana, Mahabharata, and Ashtavakra Gita.

The speech was followed by a question and answer session for the attendees. A vote of thanks was rendered to the team by Ms. Kiran Yadav ma'am to our Chief Guest, Principal Sir, Professors, and Litworms team, as well as all the other non-teaching staff.
