“National Seminar: Towards a Resilient India: Sustainable and Inclusive Growth”

On 22nd March, 2023, a National Seminar on "Towards a resilient India: Sustainable and Inclusive Growth" was held at Shyam Lal College from 10 am onwards in Seminar Hall.

The seminar was attended by undergraduate students from various colleges and universities, as well as students of the Economics Department from SLC.

The seminar hosts Siddharth Kumar and Shilpi Singh gave a welcoming address, introducing the theme of the seminar and the presenters. The conference was then officially opened with a customary lamp-lighting ceremony, followed by a speech by the TIC Ms. Jyoti Atri and a welcome note by Dr. Bharat Bhushan

The first keynote speaker, Prof. Surrender Kumar, delivered a presentation on "Towards a Resilient India: Sustainable and Inclusive Growth", emphasizing its significance and relevance in the modern world. He discussed the challenges faced by India in achieving sustainable and inclusive growth, and offered potential solutions to these challenges. Together with sharing his own experiences and perspectives, he offered insights into current research and industry advancements. The crowd responded favorably to the talk and actively engaged in the Q&A session that followed.

This was followed by a short lecture by Prof. Param Jit, who spoke about inclusivity and sustainable growth in India and its significance. He highlighted the importance of inclusivity in ensuring that the benefits of economic growth are shared by all sections of society. His talk was informative and engaging, and received a positive response from the attendees.

Following the talks, there was a brief break for refreshments, which provided an opportunity for networking and interaction among the attendees. The seminar then proceeded with a competition for paper presentations, where undergraduate students gave presentations of their research papers on a range of subjects relating to the seminar's theme. The papers were assessed by the judges based on their overall impact, presentation, and content.

The event concluded with a closing address by Syed Ali, President of Economics Society, who thanked everyone for coming and supporting the program. He acknowledged the contributions of the speakers and the organizers in making the seminar a success. In addition, the judges awarded awards of achievement to the winners of the competition for the best paper presentations.

Overall, the National Seminar on "Towards a resilient India: Sustainable and Inclusive Growth" was a highly educational and interesting event that gave students a chance to learn about the most recent findings and advancements in the industry. The competition for paper presentations and talks was well run, and the audience gave them favorable reviews. The awareness-raising and academic excellence-promoting goals of the seminar were successfully accomplished, and the event was a great success.

Results For Paper Presentation:

Sahanubhuti and Chaavi Jain - 1st Prize

Kanishka Kochar - 2nd Prize

Deepam Kapoor - Consolation Prize

Abhimanyu Solanki - Consolation Prize
