The event saw an enthusiastic response, with 50 students registering for the competition. Out of these, 30 participants submitted their articles, each bringing their unique perspective to the theme. The theme, "Evolving Identity: The Journey of a Nation Since Independence," invited students to analyze and articulate the socio-political, economic, and cultural changes that have shaped modern India.

Students from various disciplines and colleges eagerly participated, bringing diverse perspectives and insights to the competition. After reviewing these articles, the winners were announced. Navni Sharma from Maitreyi College, secured first place. Arpita Khanduja from Shyam Lal College(M) won second place. The third place was awarded to Anvesha Batra from SSCBS.

Overall, the article writing competition on Independence Day was a resounding success, offering a platform for students to express their thoughts and insights on the evolution of India's identity since independence. It was a celebration of India's past achievements, present challenges, and future aspirations, reflecting the collective consciousness of a nation in perpetual motion.
