

An Educational Trip to Manali, Himachal Pradesh by Commerce Association, SLC

15th - 19th March, 2019

CommBlaze: The Commerce Association of Shyam Lal College (SLC), University of Delhi organized an Educational Tour to Manali from 15th-19th March 2019. The tour was spread over three days and four nights. The joyful journey began in the evening on 15th March'19 with 31 students from the Department of Commerce along with 6 faculty members- Mr. Vinod Kumar, Dr. Jasvir Singh, Dr. Sunita Pooniya, Dr. Shaista Sami, Mr. Rohit Shah, Mr. Bhupender led by Convenor of The Commerce Association, Dr. Mast Ram. With full of enthusiasm and excitement the group reached Manali on 16th March'19 in the afternoon. Students along with faculty members visited the famous Hadimba Temple and prayed for the blessings of Mata Hadimba. Thereafter, they explored the Mall Road of Manali getting familiar with the market and business environment in Manali.

On the Second day- 17th March, students and faculty went for an adventurous and thrilling experience of River Rafting in the Beas River. Thereafter, they got the opportunity to visit handloom textile industries in Manali and Kullu famous for their artistic handwork. Students were interviewed and got the questionnaires filled by workers working in Trishla Mahila Kutir Udyog. They came across the features of the working environment prevailing in the handloom industries of Manali. This was a great learning experience for students. They also visited Manikaran Gurudwara. The eternity of such a holy place provided a deep harmony to the soul of all. On the way back to the hotel students visited the market of Kasol.

On 18th March, students went to Solang Valley. Everyone enjoyed the whole day there around beautiful nature, playing snow games. The team started their journey back to Delhi and reached the college campus on the morning of 19th March 2019. Dr. Mast Ram, the Convenor, CommBlaze concluded that such educational tours are a very important part of college life to give students much-needed practical exposure and a refreshing start. Later on two students from B.Com (H) final year - Mr. Nitin Shrivastava & Ms. Sheena Sharma converted their experience of the visit to textile industries into a research paper. They presented the paper titled 'Make In India: Impact On Textile Sector' in "National Conference & Young Entrepreneurs Convention- Make in India Towards Growth & Progress" organized by the Commerce Department & IQAC on 24th-25th April 2019, under the guidance and convenorship of Dr. Mast Ram.

