

Litephilia 2018—19: (hosted by English Literary Society Litworms)

The English Literary Society Litworms in the Academic Year 2018-19 organized various events under the aegis of the English Literary Association of which Dr. Abbasuddin Tapadar was the Convenor. Litworms organized its annual intra-college Debate Frolic on 24th October, 2018 to commemorate the birth anniversary of eminent English poets John Keats. Two uniquely creative events were hosted: Calidore and Triple Es (Enact, Expiate, & Exchange) in which students of the department as well as from other departments participated in large number revisiting through poetic/literary activities inspired by the poetry of John Keats and his worldviews on Nature, Life and Art. About 40 students participated in this event.

Litworms organized English department Annual Literary Festival Litephilia on 11 March, 2019 with about 60 students and 5 teaching faculty as attendees. The events conducted under the aegis of Litephilia 2019 edition were:

- A) Quiddith Games
- B) War of Intellect—A Debate
- C) Ink-link—Pictionary Contest
- D) Beg Borrow Steal: Treasure Hunt Contest

The English Literary Society also hosted the Department's annual seminar on 12 March 2019. The theme of the Seminar was: "Mapping Fantasies: Revisiting the Fantastic in Literary and Visual Narratives:"
