

Litephilia- 24

The annual event of the English Literary Society.

Date: 25th of April 2024.

Litworms- The English Society of SLC organized its annual literary fest Litephilia'24 on the 25th of April, 2024, comprising two events: Poetry Pulse, an inter-college poetry competition, and Fantasy Fetch, a short-story writing competition.

Students across different colleges in Delhi showed their active participation in the events by registering themselves in good numbers for the competitions and showcasing their literary skills.

The competitions commenced smoothly under the coordination of the team. Hosted by Sana and Megha, Poetry Pulse saw nineteen participants showcasing their oratory skills through poetries ranging across various themes thereby leaving the audience spellbound with their performances.

Students presented exceptionally brilliant pieces ranging from themes ranging from love, friendship and self-love to patriotism.

The short story writing competition too turned out to be a huge success with fifteen students showcasing their remarkable compositional skills and framing exceptionally wonderful pieces. In the short time frame of one hour, they crafted marvelous pieces referring to the prompts given to them on the day of the competition.

Poetry Pulse- The inter-college poetry competition was judged under the guidance of the esteemed teachers of English department Dipank Sir and Kiran Ma'am while Dr. Rohit Sir and Dr. Kinshuk Sir graciously offered to judge the short-story writing competition.

After a nail-biting deliberation by the judging panel, winners were announced. Bhavana Bhaskar from Miranda House, Priyam Sharma from Shyam Lal College, and Mohit Verma from Dyal Singh College emerged victorious in the Fantasy Fetch competition bagging first, second and third positions respectively. At the same time, Nishtha Thukal from Atma Ram Sanatan Dharma College, Needa from Delhi School of Journalism, and Nikita from Gargi College captured hearts with their poetic prowess in Poetry Pulse.

The event was graced by the presence of our convener, Dr. Abbas Tapadar and the Teacher-in-Charge, Ms. Shivali Kharbanda. Besides our convener and our teacher-in-charge, all the English departmental teachers graced us with their honorable presence.

As the event concluded, applause filled the air as the participants and the team Litworms were felicitated for their dedication and passion.

Our convenor Dr. Abbas Tapadar delivered an appreciative note, commending the team's efforts in organizing such a successful event.

Overall Litephilia'24, organized by Litworms- the English Society of SLC, proved to be a resounding success. The event was more than just a competition- It celebrated diverse possibilities of literary genre and the promise of new and potential talent within the literary community.

Members:

Faculty of English department

All English Department students. (1st year, 2nd year, 3rd year)

Litworms members:

Komal
Mayank
Manpreet
Manshi
Divya
Nargis
Ananya
Nandini
Sushree

Arpita
Anmol
Sania
Sameep
Jiya
Muqem
Oshin
Sneha
Sana
Lakshay (co-opted)

Akanksha
Hritik (co-opted)
Prem
Himanshi
Reeti (co-opted)
Megha