

Shyam Lal College
Department of English
Spoken English Course (2017-18)
Report

The Department of English, under the guidance of the Principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, organized a Spoken English Course for the students of the College on 21st August, 2017 for academic session 2017-18. The course was meant for those students who faced difficulties and were unable to acquire English language skills properly. The course was designed as a Six-Week Spoken English Course (four days per week) 48 hrs course and though primary focus was on spoken English, it also included reading and writing sections other than speaking and listening.

The response from the students was overwhelming; total 50 students were shortlisted for the course. Prof. Kar, the principal, addressed the students intimating them about the importance of English in social and corporate realms. He also appreciated the effort of English Department. The sessions were interactive, informative and interesting. The usage of videos, hand-outs, stories, comics, suggestive books and interesting worksheets helped the students to grasp the tips to learn and understand English language. There were brain-storming sessions, debates, group activities and impromptu presentations which enhanced the confidence level of the students.

Learning Outcomes:

The students should be able to:

- 1) Articulate basic English words with ease and communicate with confidence
- 2) Pronounce the words correctly and able to identify the usage of words according to occasion (register).
- 3) Read, write and speak Basic English at professional/formal places.
- 4) Apply verbal and non-verbal techniques to experience enhanced expression quality during speaking.
- 5) Feel encouraged to move to advanced level of speaking, writing and reading skills
