A detailed description of the event: The student union of Shyam Lal College (M) organized ‘Anugoonj - The Annual Culture Fest’ on 8th and 9th April 2024 in the Kabaddi Ground of our college. Jharokha on the invitation from the student union participated in their two-day event.

On the first day, we performed our production ‘Chappal – A Race of Greed’ written and directed by ‘Yash Gupta’ and assisted by ‘Team Jharokha’ in Room Number 10. The play revolved around an ambitious artist who lost his precious ‘chappal’. The story showcases the amusing incidents he faced while searching for his chappal which was filled with Action, Comedy, Drama and Romance. We highlighted the issue of the increasing materialistic greed among the humans and how this can cause the being to take impulsive decisions without giving a second thought. The play was immensely loved and applauded by the audience and the faculty members showered the team with their blessings and appreciated our efforts.

On the second day, we organized ‘Hunar मंच - An Open Stage Event’ in collaboration with the ‘Student Union’ in the Kabaddi Ground. The event was a grand success as this provided the students of our college with a platform to showcase their talents. The students performed various kind of art forms like singing, dancing, poetry, acting and many more. Each of them was highly talented and received grand applauses from the audience. We received heart-warming responses and gratification from our fellow students for providing such amazing opportunity to them. The selection of the winners was a rigorous process as every participant has its own spark.
