A detailed description of the event:Jharokha performed its annual production 'Mukhote - Faces one hides behind themselves' written and directed by 'Shruti Mangla' in 'Abhivyakti - The Stage Play Competition' organized by 'IIT Roorkee' under their annual event 'Thomso'23'. We were shortlisted for the second round among the 32 participating teams and finally secured 4th position. The story begins from the mythological period showcasing a glimpse of the Great War wherein, Lord Rama defeated Ravana ending his prolonged cruelty from the world. Further the story connects itself to the present time where the character of 'Manas' has embodied the instincts of contemporary Ravan. The play was highly appreciated by the esteemed audiences and renowned judges for the unique concept and the way of presentation.

This trip was a wonderful experience for our team. We learned many things about theatre as it gave us a valuable exposure. Along with the competition, our team ensured to live every moment there and make several unforgettable memories.
