Online Creative Writing Competition

This year we celebrate 75 years of Indian independence. Today (5th August), Centre for Holistic Development conducted an Online Creative Writing Competition with the theme “Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav”. The program started with the enthusiastic and warm welcome words given by CHD Convenor, Dr. Seema Dabas followed by IQAC Convenor, Prof. Kusha Tiwari who spoke about how our country has improved within these 75 years. Our principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar appreciated all the members for this unique way of celebrating this auspicious occasion and motivated all the participants for this with his kind words. Later the competition began where Akansha (Core Member, CHD) explained the rules of the competition. The competition started at 4:15 pm and ended at 5:15 pm. At last a vote of thanks was given to all the faculty members Dr. Ruchika, Dr. Gayatri, Dr. Mast Ram, Dr. Vivekanand and Dr. Prabhat and the participants from different colleges for their active participation and cooperation throughout the competition. The entire team of the CHD Sparsh tandon(TL) ,Archit Agarwal(TL) ,Akansha Sachdeva,Gautam porwal ,Divya jyoti were appreciated for their full time attention and hard work in making this event successful. At last one day is never enough to pay homage to all the freedom fighters, in fact they should be remembered everyday and hold as a source of direction.

Winners of the competition:

1st prize - Anushka Tiwari

2nd prize - Tejaswi Bindal

3rd prize - Richa Sharma

In addition to this the College is also organising a “Azadi Quiz” organised by Department of Economics jointly with IQAC August 11, 2021 wherein the students of our college will participate in several rounds of quiz programme on topics like India Freedom struggle, Post-Independence Economics growth of India etc.

Further, the College staff along with some students have organised Tree Planation Drive and Flower Show and are also singing National Anthem from daily in the morning from August 2, 2021.
