Organised
Har Ghar Tiranga Rally and pledge

The Eco-Club of Shyam College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with UBA, NSS, and SAP, organized a rally titled 'Har Ghar Tiranga on 14th August 23.' Approximately 50 students from Eco-club, SAP & UBA participated and more than 50 faculty members enthusiastically joined the 'Har Ghar Tiranga Rally. This event aimed to foster a sense of unity, patriotism, and community engagement among students, faculty, and the local community. The rally was a collective effort that symbolized the shared values and commitment of the college community towards the nation. Participants of the rally carried vibrant flags and held banners displaying inspiring messages. The procession embarked on nearby areas of Shahdara, spreading the essence of patriotism through spirited slogans such as "Bharat Mata ki Jai." The rally gathered widespread attention, with school students from the local community spontaneously joining the procession. Their participation added a youthful vibrancy to the event, reinforcing the importance of such initiatives in nurturing a sense of national pride from a young age. The rally's impact was further amplified by the participation of the S.H.O. (Station House Officer) and police officers from Shahdara, who wholeheartedly endorsing the message of unity and patriotism. This collaborative effort underscored the rally's significance and showcased how shared ideals can bring diverse sections of society together. The "Har Ghar Tiranga Rally" achieved its objective of promoting unity, patriotism, and community engagement. During the ceremony, all participants took the "Panch Pran Pledge," reaffirming their commitment to the responsible and sustainable use of the five vital elements.

Overall, the event was a great success, bringing our community together to celebrate our nation's spirit and values."
