Solo Dance Performance – Holi Milan Samaroh

Venue: Shyam Lal College

Total No. of Students Performed: 1

Performer: Prerna

On the vibrant occasion of Holi Milan Samaroh, organized by the Students' Union on 8th March 2025, Aarodhya – The Indian Classical Dance Society added a splash of cultural colour to the festivities with a captivating solo performance.

Prerna, a dedicated and graceful performer of the society, presented a solo classical piece that beautifully captured the spirit of Holi, the festival of colours and joy. Her performance, rooted in expressive storytelling and rhythmic footwork, reflected the playful yet divine essence often associated with traditional Holi celebrations in Indian dance narratives.

The audience was thoroughly enthralled by her energy and poise, making it a delightful and memorable segment of the celebration. Once again, Aarodhya added charm and tradition to the event through its artistic presence.
