

SLC(University of Delhi)

Finearts and Sculpture Committee

(Fine Arts, Photography and Culture Society)

Report on Poster making competition

Date:- 13th February, 2025

Participants:- 8

Venue:- Daulat Ram College

Natasha Chauhan, a talented student from Shyam Lal College and a representative of the Fine and Performing Arts Society (FPCS), secured the first prize in the Online Poster Making Competition organized under Tasavvur by Magic Lantern and Sepia, the Film and Photography Society of Daulat Ram College, University of Delhi. The competition was held on 19th February 2025 and witnessed participation from numerous creative minds across various institutions.

Natasha's exceptional artistic vision and creativity helped her stand out among the competitors, earning her a certificate of achievement along with a cash prize of ₹1000. Her winning poster was praised for its originality, aesthetic appeal, and ability to convey a compelling message effectively. The judges acknowledged her ability to combine artistic finesse with meaningful storytelling, making her submission truly outstanding.

The event provided a platform for aspiring artists to showcase their talent and express their ideas through digital art. It also encouraged creative discussions and exchange of ideas among students passionate about film, photography, and digital design. Natasha's remarkable accomplishment not only highlights her individual skills but also brings pride to Shyam Lal College and FPCS.

The competition was one of the key highlights of Tasavvur, which aims to celebrate artistic expression through various mediums. The event saw a range of unique and thought-provoking entries, making Natasha's win even more commendable. Her artwork portrays the transformation of women from being bound by societal norms and patriarchy to breaking free, embracing strength, and redefining their identities.

This victory reinforces the college's commitment to fostering artistic excellence and encourages students to participate in such prestigious competitions in the future. The achievement is a testament to Natasha's hard work and the guidance of her mentors, who continuously strive to nurture creative talent.

