On February 2nd, 2025, the Fine Arts, Photography, and Cultural Society (FPCS) under the guidance of the Fine Arts Committee of Shyam Lal College organized a grand celebration of Saraswati Puja “Trinity” on the auspicious occasion of Basant Panchami. The event, Trinity, was a magnificent blend of devotion, art, and cultural reverence, bringing together students, faculty, and esteemed guests in a spiritually uplifting atmosphere. A beautifully adorned setup, rich with vibrant decorations, created a divine ambiance for the celebration. A significant highlight of the event was the installation of a new idol of Lord Ganesha, followed by its Pran Pratishtha ceremony, performed with deep reverence by Principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar. The presence of Ms. Savita Gupta, Chairperson of Shyam Lal College, as the Chief Guest, added great honor to the occasion.

The puja was followed by a sacred Havan, in which faculty members and students actively participated, seeking blessings for wisdom, prosperity, and success. The atmosphere resonated with the chanting of mantras, filling the surroundings with divine energy. To conclude the event, a prasad distribution was arranged, ensuring that all attendees could partake in the spiritual grace of the ceremony.

The Saraswati Puja celebration at Shyam Lal College was a deeply enriching experience, fostering a sense of devotion, cultural pride, and collective harmony. The event truly embodied the essence of Basant Panchami, marking the arrival of spring with prayers, positivity, and artistic expression.
