Date:-24th February, 2025

Participants:- 12

Venue:- Institute Of Home Economics

On 5th March, 2025, the Institute of Home Economics, University of Delhi, hosted a creative and nostalgic event titled "Postcard from the Past" — a postcard making competition organized by the North East Student Association. With a theme rooted in memories, culture, and heritage, the competition saw participants travel through time and imagination to craft stories on miniature canvases.

Among the 12–13 talented participants from across various colleges, Jyoti Sharma, representing the Fine Arts, Photography, and Culture Society (FPCS) of Shyam Lal College, impressed the judges with her heartfelt artwork and secured the 2nd Position in the competition.

The theme invited artists to revisit their roots and narrate a story or sentiment from the past through the format of a postcard. Jyoti's creation stood out for its intricate detailing, emotional depth, and the ability to evoke nostalgia with every brushstroke. Her artwork seamlessly blended personal reflection with cultural resonance, staying true to the essence of the competition.

Participants were judged on creativity, thematic interpretation, design, and overall impact. Jyoti's thoughtful and beautifully executed postcard earned her well-deserved recognition and appreciation from the panel.

She was honoured with a certificate and a special mention, marking yet another proud achievement for FPCS and further cementing its reputation for artistic excellence across DU.
