

AGHAAZ'23-

Qasida :- The poetry society of SLC

Venue :- Seminar Hall of SLC

No. Of student participants – 24

No. Of Faculty Participants – 3

Event description-

Aaghaz'23, an orientation event was conducted for the new aboard members of the poetry society Qasida on 21st September, 11 AM onwards in the seminar hall of Shyamlal College. The programme was to introduce the newcomers about the society, its annual events etc. and it was done through a presentation that was made about the journey of the society.

To create a welcoming environment the society also prepared games and an introduction session for the newcomers. Qasida also cordially invited the alumni of the society to share their experiences. The orientation session was hosted by team members- Devika and Shubham, with the presence of Radhika Kundalia mam and Abbas Tapadar sir. The programme officially ended with the official welcoming of the new society members.

