Event description-

The poetry society of Shyam Lal College, Qasida plays an integral part in providing aspiring poets a stage and spectators full of enthusiasm. From years Qasida had been organizing events to nourish the budding poets and give them a stage, 'KALAMKARI' is one such event organized by Qasida the poetry society of Shyam Lal College (M) at Seminar Hall of college on 13th October 2023 from 12 PM. Amidst the main guest -

- Prof. Jitendra Kumar Srivastava
- Mansi Goswami
- Abhishek Tiwari.

The event was separated into two parts. In the first stage, competitors submitted their poems using the link provided by the team. Selected competitors received invitations to compete at Kalamkari'22. The event's chief guest also inspired the crowd with poems and shayaris. Every year on campus, Qasida, the poetic society, continues to host events of this nature and is growing in rhythm with poetry. Overall, the event was a success.

Team Qasida organised and managed the whole ceremony. To make it more remarkable, various activities were performed by the students.

The event started off with a Deep prajwalan ceremony where the chief guest ignited the lamp followed by a performance of Ganesh Vandana by one of our team members (Kanishk). The anchors then announced the name of the participants and the recitation by the participants was done accordingly. A song performance was also performed by Insignia.

Our Convenor-Rajkumar Prasad sir, our Faculty Advisor- Abbas Tapadar sir and Faculty Coordinator Radhika Kundalia ma'am and the alumuni supported the event and graced it with their presence.
