

SHEERSHASHTH

THE BILINGUAL DEBATING SOCIETY

Report on Orientation Session of Sheershashth for 2023-24

On September 19, 2023, Sheershashth, the bilingual debating society of Shyam Lal College, Delhi University, hosted an engaging orientation session at the college amphitheatre, starting at 1:00 p.m.

- The event welcomed 20 to 30 new members, creating an exciting atmosphere for everyone involved.
- Core members actively participated, making the orientation interactive and full of energy.
- Fun games were played to enhance personal connections and teamwork, leaving everyone rolling with laughter.
- Members learned the basics of debating in a friendly and interesting way, setting a solid foundation for their journey ahead.
- The beautiful open-air setting of the amphitheatre added to the vibrant environment, showcasing the charm of the college.
- Sheershashth continued to boast about its commitment to excellence and its strong community, with dedicated core team members leading the way.

Overall, the orientation was a fantastic start, filled with enthusiasm and excitement for the upcoming debates and discussions. Team Sheershashth looked forward to getting to know everyone better and embarking on this amazing journey together.
