

Report on Re-Orientation Session for Re Auditions 2023

On September 20, 2023, Sheershashth, the bilingual debating society of Shyam Lal College, Delhi University, organized a lively re-orientation session at the college amphitheatre, starting at 1:00 p.m ,Amphitheatre SLC.

No.of participants- 40

- The event aimed to welcome back members and prepare for the upcoming re-auditions, creating a vibrant atmosphere for all participants.
- Core members led the session, ensuring it was interactive and engaging, fostering a strong sense of community.
- Fun activities were incorporated to strengthen personal connections and teamwork, resulting in plenty of laughter and camaraderie.
- Participants refreshed their understanding of debating fundamentals in an enjoyable and friendly manner, setting the stage for future success.
- The beautiful outdoor setting of the amphitheatre contributed to the lively environment, highlighting the charm of the college campus.
- Sheershashth proudly showcased its dedication to excellence, with committed core team members ready to support everyone on this journey.

Overall, the re-orientation was a fantastic opportunity to reignite enthusiasm and excitement for the upcoming re-auditions and debates. Team Sheershashth looked forward to strengthening bonds and embarking on this exciting chapter together.