

SHEERSHASHTH

THE BILINGUAL DEBATING SOCIETY

REPORT ON YOUTH CONCLAVE

Sheershashth: The Bilingual Debating Society of Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi, organized the very first edition of its highly anticipated Shyam Lal Youth Conclave on the 26th of September 2023 (Tuesday) in the Arya Auditorium, Kailash Colony. With in an around 500 participants and 1000 registrations.

The Conclave was marked by the presence of distinguished speakers from Military, Security, Academic and Social Media Background encompassing all the topics and issues which hit closest to home for the youth in attendance. The guest speakers of the event were (in the order of their segments/session) Col.(ret'd) Rajeev Bharwan Maj. Gen (ret'd) GD Bakshi K.K Creates(Ms. Kavya Karnatac)

While the speakers spoke on themes relevant to what they do the common thread was the target audience- from motivational academic discussions , deliberations upon national security and our shared future to the effective use of social media every aspect of the modern day issues were tapped upon and spoken about in details. There were audience questions round in every segment which allowed for the crowd and the speaker to interact. and helped facilitate energetic and thought provoking discussions.

“Apart from the Speaker's session there were multiple cultural programs in between to add more spark to the entire event” The Conclave was inaugurated by a serene and beautiful classically Indian dance performed by former Shyam Lal student Unnatl , there were dance performances by the IIT Delhi dance crew - V DEFYN , a short skit by JHAROKHA : the dramatics society of Shyam Lal College and Individual singers such as Harsh Khare and Shubham mishra as the last shows of the evening. The event began at around 12:00 pm in the noon and ended by 7:00 pm when the team winded up the work and left the venue. It was without a doubt one of the most grand events ever hosted by Sheershashth and its efforts were recognized and lauded by both the attendees and the speakers , the conclave proved to be a efficient forum for Dialogue, Discussions and Debate in all the spheres of public and personal life. Through the SLYC 23 , We believe to have created a legacy that will now continue to cater to the intellectual needs of the incoming and present batch of students through multiple editions of the SHYAM LAL YOUTH CONCLAVE . We express our sincerest gratitude to Mr. Abbasuddin Tapadar for his pivotal role in helping the society organize an event of this kind and also are deeply thankful to the College Administration for their
