Date: 23rd January 2025

No of Participants: 5

The members of Swaraagam represented the college at the prestigious Times Fresh Face Competition. The stage came alive with a burst of energy as the musicians demonstrated their collective harmony and individual prowess.

For many members, it were a first time experience performing on a large, high pressure stage with significant media presence, which built their confidence.

The faculty mentors and student coordinators played a crucial role in preparing the team and ensuring their impactful presence in the competition. Participation in such events contributes significantly to the holistic development of students and motivates them to pursue excellence in both academics and co-curricular fields.

The participation of Swaraagam in the Time Fresh Face Competition was a proud moment for Shyam Lal College. It strengthened the identity of the music society as a vibrant platform for budding musicians and highlighted the institutions's commitment to cultural enrichment.
