As part of the celebration, Swaraagam – The Music Society of Shyam Lal College presented a soulful performance that added grace and liveliness to the event. The society members rendered melodious devotional and classical compositions dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, followed by semi-classical and light music pieces that symbolized the essence of the spring season.

The performance began with a Saraswati Vandana, invoking the blessings of the Goddess of knowledge, wisdom, and arts. This was followed by group performances showcasing both classical and contemporary musical styles, which were highly appreciated by the audience. The rhythmic blend of traditional ragas with soulful singing created a divine atmosphere across the college campus.

The celebration concluded with collective enthusiasm, as the entire gathering cherished the festive spirit of Basant Panchami. Swaraagam's contribution played a significant role in making the event memorable and spiritually enriching.
