The Music Society Swaraagam of Shyam Lal College (University of Delhi) actively participated in Vasantotsava, the annual event organized by the B.A. Programme Society. The event was held with great enthusiasm and witnessed vibrant participation from students across different courses.

Swaraagam presented a soulful musical performance that beautifully blended classical, semi-classical, and contemporary elements. The performance created a captivating atmosphere and was highly appreciated by the audience. The society's members showcased their vocal as well as instrumental talent, reflecting the spirit of harmony and cultural richness.

The performance not only entertained but also highlighted the society's commitment to nurturing musical excellence and promoting the cultural ethos of the college. The audience responded with applause and admiration, making it a memorable segment of Vasantotsava.

The participation of Swaraagam in this annual event added immense value and charm to the celebration. It also provided the members a platform to express their creativity, teamwork, and passion for music, thereby further strengthening the cultural fabric of the institution.
